

Competitive Capacity Grants
Funded Applicants: 2003-2004

2003-2004 Competition Overview

Six applications for Community Research Alliance Grants were received, two were funded.

Nine applications for Development Grants were received, four were funded.

In this years competition, the funded grants all received a score of 80/100 or higher.

Review Panel members

Chair

Gail Tomblin-Murphy, Dalhousie University and the University of Toronto

Members

Jonathon Fowles, Acadia University

Erna Snelgrove Clark, McGill University and the IWK Health Centre

Vic Catano, Saint Marys University

Brenda Payne, Nova Scotia Department of Health and the University of Calgary

Joanne Gallivan, University College of Cape Breton

Victor Maddalena, Dalhousie University

Funded Applicants

Name	Title of Project	Program
Penny Corkum, Dalhousie University	School-Aged Children with Autistic Spectrum Disorders: A collaborative project between educators and health researchers	Community Research Alliance
Mark Filiaggi and Deborah Matthews, Dalhousie University	A collaborative oral health research framework for Nova Scotia	Community Research Alliance
Isabel Fearon, IWK Health Centre	Examining a Continuum of treatment for children with Oppositional Defiant Disorder	Development
Richard Price, Dalhousie University	Effect of the different wavelengths of light emitted from commercially available dental curing lights on resin polymerization	Development
S.S. Cheung and D. A. Westwood, Dalhousie University	The effects of hypothermia on vigilance and spatial attention	Development
Steve Kisely, Dalhousie University	Assessing the Outcome of Compulsory Psychiatric Treatment in the Community. An epidemiological comparison of two jurisdictions with and without community treatment disorders	Development